How will I listen and appraise to the songs?

- Listen to the music together. Learn about why the song was written and how the song connects to its social and cultural context. Use the discussion and the information from the tiles to learn about the background of the music or song. Looking at the interactive musical timeline Connections: A Selection of Musical Styles and Their Origins will help them to highlight the connections of the song/music to other styles and place it in time

How will I learn to sing new songs?

- Try to understand what the song is about, what the words mean. Begin to understand why we warm up our voices and bodies. Singing together is fun, but you must learn to listen to each other. Enjoy singing a solo. Learn the songs Michael Row: The Boat Ashore by Unknown, Dragon Song by Joanna Mangona and Pete Readman and Follow Me by Joanna Mangona.

How will I share and perform the learning that has taken place?

- Perform and share the learning that has taken place in each lesson and at the end of the unit. Here, you have the opportunity to share the fun you had in the lesson. You can sing and add any of the musical activities you have practised with the song/s. Create and present a holistic performance. This will be a short performance for sharing at the end of the lesson.
